b. COC Election of Chair/Co-Chair

Elections were held Glenda Rice volunteered to serve as the COC Chair and Marilyn Patterson agreed to serve as Co-Chair. All members present were in agreement

c. Bond – John Peukert

John Peukert presented the COC with a proposed letter of support in the upcoming elections for the Measure N Bond. The $250 million Bond would provide the needed funds to up –date lighting, improve security and fire safety systems, and upgrade and expand computer technology and internet access to name a few benefits. After a brief discussion the COC declined to endorse the letter in support of the Bond. The committee felt that the information was already being publicized and that the need for committee endorsement was not needed.
