1. I understand that this is a prevailing wage job; are we also required to be a registered contractor with the Department of Industrial Relations (DIR)?

   A1. Individual projects may or may not be prevailing wage projects. For those projects that are prevailing wage, DIR registration will be required. (Please see Item 6. below, a revision to RFQ Attachment 3, now requesting two versions of proposed pricing, one to apply to prevailing wage project, and one to apply to non-prevailing wage projects.)

2. If we elect to use subcontractors, do we need to name them in this RFQ? And do they need to be registered with the DIR?

   A2. Yes, identify any subcontractors you may intend to use. Individual projects may or may not be prevailing wage projects. For those projects that are prevailing wage, DIR registration will be required.

3. Could you clarify the questions about "Architectural and Engineering Services" (Page 39, Questions 12 & 13); are those questions applicable to this RFQ?

   A3. Correction for Questions 12 & 13 on page 39 is as follows:

   (12) Identify Moving Services performed for other school districts in accordance parameters described above.
   (13) Describe how respondent has successfully provided Moving Services such as those described herein.

4. Are we required to have Errors and Omissions coverage as part of our insurance policy? (Page 40, Question 19)

   A4. No, Errors & Omissions coverage is not required.

5. How many copies do you want? There is different info on page 6 & 9. See below:
